Elsewhere the cause of Anacletus prospered,

His partisans rose in Rome and overpowered the Frangipani; Innocent could find no footing in the city and taking ship sought refuge once more in his faithful Pisa. In the north Bernard and he awaited a fresh revolution in events; in the south, victory went all with Anaeletus's King, Apulia was now broken into submission by a ruthless warfare which, says Palco, made the army of the insurgents "wonder and shudder, and pray that God would resist so great a tyrant and man of blood." In October, 1133, the King returned to winter in Palermo; twenty-three laden with countless spoils and thousands of captives accompanied him; a storm rose in the night, and they went down with all their cargo,

Early in 1134, he landed again in Salerno, into whose harbour he sailed with sixty galleys, In the brief campaign his foes could make no effective stand, There remained only the Campania to deal with, and the army of Rainulf, who, hoping
